An original 'journey in sound' that charts the 'round-the-world travels of a viol quartet aboard Francis Drake's Golden Hinde, from 1577 to 1580. 16th century tunes weave through new music by Orlando Gough that recall Drake's exotic ports of call from Morocco and Java to Cape Verde and Sierra Leone.

Connect with this multilingual array of madrigals, instrumentals, pop tunes, lute songs and dances that run from serious to bawdy to cerebral, in English, Italian, Dutch, Spanish in a program for (and about) everyone!

THE ART & ECSTASY OF THE CHACONNE

A lascivious reputation guaranteed its popularity! The Chaconne, the dance originating in Renaissance Latin America, scandalized the European church. From the streets of Spain to the mind of Bach, principal soloists of Sinfonia New York present a range of interpretations with Baroque dancers, lute and soprano.

THE SIX WIVES OF HENRY VIII
