

Presents

FRETWORK

The World Encompassed

Orlando Gough

Susanna Pell, Asako Morikawa, Liam Byrne
Reiko Ichise, Richard Tunnicliffe & Richard Boothby - viols

Saturday, 6 November 2010 at 7:30 ■ UWM Helene Zelazo Center ■ Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Leaving Plymouth

Robert Parsons: The Song Called Trumpets
Preserve us O Lord

Mogador

John Taverner: In Nomine
Maio Santiago Fogo: Maian rituals; the capture of Nuño de Silva; flying fish

Fortune my Foe

The Lamentation of a Sinner
Port Desire: Patagonian Indians

Parsons: In Nomine III

Terra Incognita: an island of geese (or what look like geese); glimpses of the Indians; an eclipse of the moon; storms
The Humble Suit of a Sinner

INTERVAL

Luis Milan: Fantasia
Alonso Mudarra: Fantasia
Albion: Miwok Indians
Parsons: De La Court

180 degrees

Pavin of Albarti

Ternate: Moors

Picforth: In Nomine

Java

Fortune my Foe

Da Pacem Domine

Parsons: The Song called Trumpets

Music by Orlando Gough is in bold, with descriptions in italic. 16th century music is in normal type.
The Psalms or Hymns are without composer